

今天的福音章节取自路加福音的‘富翁与拉匝禄’的比喻。这个比喻让我们意识到，真正的爱心不只停留在施舍给乞丐几块钱或一点儿食物的层面上。爱心的行为绝对不是时断时续的行为，也不是肤浅的行为。尽管金钱、食物和药品的捐助有益于改善人们的生活，但是最真实的爱就是作个弱小者的‘近人’。真正有爱心的人，并不是偶尔碰到了有需要的人才会予以帮助；在他的心中，时时都在想着为他人谋求福利，并予以实践。

Open our hearts to care

In the first reading, the Prophet Amos says, “Woe to those ensconced so snugly in Zion and to those who feel so safe on the mountain of Samaria...they drink wine by the bowlful, and use the finest oil for anointing themselves, but about the ruin of Joseph they do not care at all...”. The prophet criticises those who live in comfort while remaining indifferent to the pain and suffering of others, particularly those in need. Having faith in and love for God means that we should open our eyes to those around us and demonstrate our care and mercy towards them. In the Gospel, Jesus tells a parable about a rich man who leads a self-centred life, ignoring Lazarus, the poor beggar at his gate. The way he treats Lazarus reflects his relationship with God.

Let us examine our own relationship with God. When He is central in our hearts, we naturally feel compelled to care for and love those around us, especially the vulnerable. May we follow Jesus’ example by embracing generosity and serving others for their benefit.

Reflective question:

What barriers do I face that prevent me from connecting with those in need?

God & Me In My Autistic World

11 October 2025 (Saturday)

9am - 12pm | Agape Village, Multi-Purpose Hall (Level 1)

What happens when a person with autism connects with God?

Can someone truly desire God without a strong sense of self?

These questions invite us to pause and look deeper into the mystery of faith, and into the spiritual journeys of those who live with autism. Their experiences challenge us to reflect on our own search for God, and what it means to love and be loved in return.

Friar Derrick Yap, OFM, will explore these elusive questions, guiding us to explore how asking the right questions can open doors within and connect us deeply with the spiritual stories of others navigating the autistic world. He will be joined with Dr Eunice Tan and Professor Kenneth Poon in a panel discussion following the talk. Register via bit.ly/godandme_reg or this QR code.
